DERBY SENIOR CENTER NEWS

AUGUST 2019

The summer is going by so fast. It's hard to believe the children will be back to school at the end of the month.

This month I would like to thank all the members who volunteer their services at the center with a dinner in their honor on August 8th at 5:00 PM. If you have not received an invitation and you have done at least 25 hrs. of service for the past year, please give us a call. I don't want to forget anyone.

Just a note that Team offers a program for seniors 60 years young and over to receive dinners at Griffin Hospital for only $4.00 from 4:30-6:00 PM Tuesday thru Friday. Why waste your time cooking? For this price, you can receive a beverage, soup or salad, a main entrée and dessert .

Note: We will be going to the BIG E with Oxford on September 18th which is Connecticut Day.

Cost $ 45.00PP

We will depart the Derby Senior Center at 9:00AM so please be here by 8:40AM.

We will depart the BIG E at 6:00PM which is after the parade.

The price includes motorcoach transportation, BIG E admission and driver's gratuity.

Please sign up early because we can only have seats for 25 people. So I expect this trip to fill up fast.

Sincerely,

Susan Churchill, Interim Director

An American in Paris

Cost $ 105.00 Per Person

Today we will travel to Westchester Theatre where we will watch a matinee performance with lunch included. You will receive a choice of entrée upon arrival.

After lunch, you will enjoy Broadway's sensation, "AN AMERICAN IN PARIS" To be young and restless in Paris is a dream for many of us, but in the late 1940's, it's the buoyant Jerry Mulligan's life. After escaping the horrors of the war, he moves to the city of romance. Aided by wealthy fellow American Milo Davenport, his reputation is on the up, but his heart is stolen by the ingénue, Lise. Things become complicated when both men are in love with the same woman. An American In Paris celebrates the best in life, in true Parisian style!
